DECLARATION OF ORLANDO CATALA

I, Orlando Catala declare that:

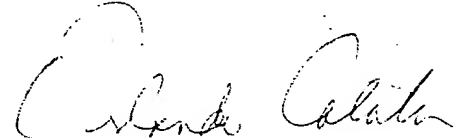

1. I am employed by Archer Management Services as a customer service representative.
2. On November 16, 2001, I was so employed and stationed at the offices of Darby & Darby P.C., 805 Third Avenue, New York, New York, 10022.
3. On that date, I accepted 16 express mail packages from the docketing department at Darby & Darby. In accordance with my instructions, I confirmed that the express mail label number for each of the packages appeared on an Express Mail Confirmation form and that the docket clerk providing the package was identified next to the label number. Upon delivering the express mail packages to the local post office, I filled in the location of the post office, the date and time of delivery, and signed the Messenger Certification on the back of the form. A true copy of that Express Mail confirmation form is attached as Exhibit A.
4. This evening, however, the clerk at the express mail window refused to accept thirteen of the packages. I therefore brought the thirteen packages back to the offices of Darby & Darby.

Messenger Certification

This certifies that I have hand delivered sealed Express Mail envelopes with the label numbers shown above to the post office identified below and on the date shown. I received each envelope in sealed form from the person identified above.

In the event that it becomes necessary to prove a date of delivery of any of the above envelopes to the United States Patent And Trademark Office (USPTO), I authorize any attorney at Darby & Darby to file any necessary papers in my name or on my behalf. In the event that it becomes necessary to prove the contents of any of the above envelopes, I authorize the person who gave me the envelope to do so in my name or on my behalf.

It may become necessary to submit this paper to the USPTO. Any person signing a paper so submitted is presumed to vouch for the truth of all statements appearing in the paper. If you know any statement above to be untrue, signing this paper may therefore subject you to penalties for committing perjury under the laws of the United States of America.
